

Gertrude Bell

Introduction

Did you know that Gertrude Bell could speak in 6 different Languages? In this report you will find out all about Gertrude Bell's travels and where she travelled, why she travelled and who she travelled with. Read the information text to find out more!

This is the picture of Gertrude Bell when she was young and old.

Fascinating Facts!

Amazingly she spoke in 6 different languages which was Arabic, Persian, French Germany, Italian and English. She took to o medicine.

Where did she travelled?

Fascinatingly she travelled all around the world some of the countries were Iran, Palestine Syria.

Where was Gertrude Bell from?

Did you know that Gertrude Bell was born on 14th of July. She lived in England. Interestingly her Grandfather was a Prime Minister.

This is a family tree

Why she became a explorer?

Interestingly she became a explorer because she wanted to write reports about people. Also, she liked to learn about history of people.

What was it like to be Gertrude bell?

Life as Gertrude was often hard because it was hot and stinky. She would usually eat the same simple food everyday and got sick easily. Sometimes it was good to be a explorer because they could find out new species.