

Advetures of MaryKingsley

Introduction

Did you know that Mary Kingsley explored 7 different countries? In this report find out about where she Mary Kingsley traveled.

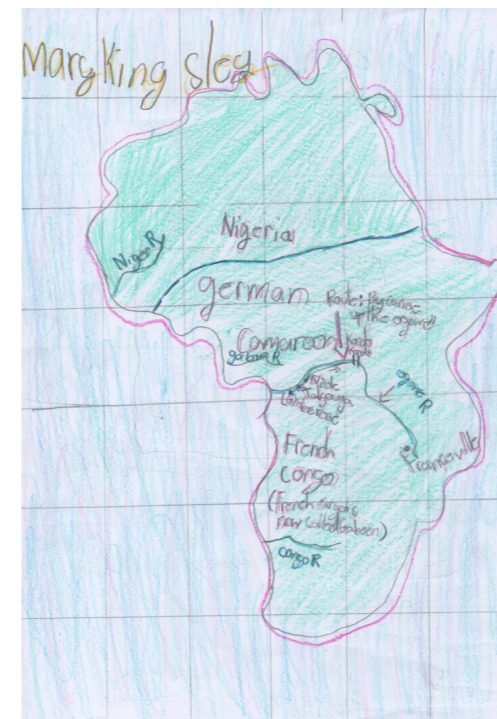

Mary kingsley on a boat

Why did she become an explorer

Interestingly she became an explorer to study African wiled life.

Where she is from

Mary Kingsley was from England.

Why famous

She was famous because she was on a cargo ship bound to west Africa.

What it was like to be an explorer

Life was often hard because they would feel home sick and a little bit scared. Many explorers went away for a long time. Explorers had to have the same food every day and the food was very simple. However, it was also great because they get to discover an explorer new lands and go on adventure.