

The adventure of Charles Darwin

Introduction

Did you know that Charles Darwin travelled around the world to find new species? In the report you will find out that he travelled to South America, Galappagos Island and more. If you want to know more about Charles Darwin so read more of our facts.

Him

Where Went

He travelled to South America and Galappagos Island

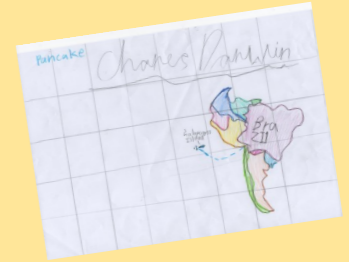

Where went

He is from the Mount, Shrewsbury and U.K

FUN FACTS:

- + Darwin married his cousin, Emma)
- + Charles Darwin was Backgammon fan.
- + After 126 years that Darwin died, the church apologized to him.
- + For Darwin's 200th birthday, the captain of the Beagle, named a mountain in Tierra del Fuego in his honor.
- + Darwin almost didn't get picked to go on the voyage, because the captain didn't like his nose.
- + Darwin wanted to be a doctor, but he could stand the sight of blood.

Map

Why Famous

Did you know that Charles Darwin was a species collector? He travelled all around the world to collect new species and animal.

What was it like to be an explorer?

Life as an explorer was often hard because they had to eat the same thing and even awkward toilet and not shower plus Wobble tables and they could get sea sick

By Pancake Y4